

Visual Work Place

Course Description

Visual Workplace introduces a basic Visual Workplace terms, concepts, principles, and frameworks. In the process, participants will have a chance to consider nearly 250 actual visual solutions and learn about the various categories of visual function found in a comprehensive visual environment.

Participants also begin to determine their current visual strengths and challenges and build their insight into visuality as a powerful partner on their journey to enterprise excellence. If we work in venues other than the ones shown in this course—whether hospital, bank, office, deep resource mine, government agency, retail store, or restaurant—this course will help you understand how and why workplace visuality fits into and supports operations in those settings as well.

Course Objectives

- Understand how visual devices translate information into exact behavior.
- Define how the two I-Driven questions—What do I need to know, and What do I need to share—help you find information deficits in the workplace.
- Identify where visuality fits into The Sieger Model for Operational Excellence.
- Begin to use the process of Visual Thinking to recognize and eliminate Motion (moving without working) in your company through visual devices.
- Recognize and distinguish the Ten Doorways into the Visual Workplace and who in the organization is responsible for implementing each.
- Understand and appreciate how visual workplace technologies create impressive bottom-line results, on and off the production floor
- Recognize the categories of visual function so you can better diagnose your current level of visuality as well as your next steps.
- Understand the five main reasons for implementing workplace visuality.
